

LMS Launch Plan

Helping organizations get their online training program off the ground seamlessly.

30 Days Prior to Launch

*Note: Some of these items might need to begin earlier depending upon the level of brand and cross-functional approval required

- Finalize Name and Tagline for Learning System
- Establish goals for system (e.g., 1,000 new users by March 25, 5,000 users by April 20, and 3,000 completed courses by July 20, etc.).
- Begin creating/ordering printed material (collateral, table tents, etc.)
- Begin building introduction external communication (if system is customer facing)
 - Email
 - Website
 - Social Media
 - Newsletter
 - Customer Events
- Begin building introduction internal communication
 - Email
 - Website
 - Social Media
 - Employee Newsletter
 - Posters and Table Tents

30 Days Prior to Launch (cont.)

*Note: Some of these items might need to begin earlier depending upon the level of brand and cross-functional approval required

- Send brief internal communication to leadership and solicit any feedback
- Send brief description to line management on their responsibilities and solicit feedback
- Set up and attend customer or technical support meeting to share the system
- Assign individuals who will handle technical support emails and calls
- Prepare a Frequently Asked Question (FAQ) Sheet (include how they will contact support)
- Set up an email alias for technical support questions
- Send a “teaser” email out (e.g., “Something new is coming your way in 30 days...”)
- Prepare press release if system is external facing
- Build structure for contest or incentive program
- Other

7 Days Prior to Launch

- Send internal communication to leadership regarding the new system and goals
- Send communication to line management confirming their responsibilities
- Pilot communication with a few users to ensure the instructions are clear
- Send email to customer-facing system regarding the new system with the FAQ
- Mail out printed material
- Finalize customer email communication, email list, and distribution delivery method
- Develop a brief video introduction
- Other

At Launch

- Send email communication regarding new system and how to access to the system. Include how they will contact support.
- Post announcement (Web, Internal sites, LinkedIn, Twitter)
- Post physical collateral
- Suggest adding note on customer-facing email signature (e.g., "See our new learning system at...")
- Test email alias for immediate response
- Send reinforcement communication to line management on their responsibilities
- Build list of questions to improve instructions and or FAQ
- Send Press Release
- Announce contest or incentive
- Post video overview and introduction
- Other

30 Days Post-Launch

- Send email communication regarding new program and how to access to the system
- Update instruction based upon questions and feedback
- Review learner feedback
- Review results compared to pre-established goals
- Update leadership team on progress
- Thank team who participated in the development
- Update announcement on website
- Touch base with customer service and technical support on awareness and questions
- Other

60 Days Post-Launch

- Send out notice on new courses available
- Audit responses to learners' questions and suggestions
- Review learner feedback and look for areas to improve
- Post positive comments from learners
- Review results compared to pre-established goals
- Update leadership team on progress
- Provide an update on contest
- Complete post launch review with the team. What went well and what could be improved on?
- Other

Ongoing

- Send out notice on new courses available
- Post positive comments from learners
- Review results compared to pre-established goals
- Update leadership team on progress

Need Help?

Get started with these great resources.

Video Tutorials

<http://www.knowledgeanywhere.com/resources/videos>

Help Center

<https://knowany.zendesk.com/hc/en-us>

Articles + Guides

<http://www.knowledgeanywhere.com/resources>